

Endorsement of Bill Joyce Real Estate Ltd.

May 28, 2009.

When my wife and I moved back to Toronto this year, we needed to find permanent accommodations in short order. It was therefore important to find a top-flight real estate agent who would work hard on our behalf, and get the right house for our growing family.

Bill Joyce perfectly fit the bill.

Bill is a friendly and accommodating agent. His knowledge of the Toronto real estate market is exceptional. He understood our needs, and worked hand-in-hand with us in a relaxed environment. He spent many hours – including evenings – searching for homes and speaking to other agents on our behalf while we were still living in Ottawa. And he found the best possible home to fit our criteria.

I would highly recommend Bill Joyce Real Estate Ltd. The hard working team of Bill and his wife, Margaret, has earned a well-deserved reputation of getting the best results for their clients.

Bill and Margaret know cities. They know the areas that families want to settle in. Most importantly, they know real estate inside and out.

Thanks for all your help, Bill. We'll be sure to use you again.
